

GOALKEEPERS, GLOBAL GOALS AWARDS 2019

WEBSITE FAQs

1. What are the Goalkeepers, Global Goals Awards?

In September 2019, Goalkeepers will present the fourth annual Global Goals Awards. These Awards tell the extraordinary stories of remarkable individuals taking action to bring the Global Goals to life and help achieve them by 2030. These influencers, both emerging and established, are in turn inspiring local and global audiences to engage with and support the progress of the Goals.

The Goalkeepers, Global Goals Awards will be held at a ceremony at Jazz, Lincoln Centre New York on September 24th, 2019.

2. What are the awards categories & criteria?

The 2019 Goalkeepers, Global Goals Awards categories and respective criteria are as follows:

1. Progress Award (age 16 – 30): The Global Goals Progress Award celebrates the achievement of an individual who is supporting progress for the Goals via a science, technology, digital or business led initiative.
2. Changemaker Award (age 16 – 30): The Global Goals Changemaker Award celebrates the achievement of an individual who has inspired Goal related change using their personal experience or from a position of leadership.
3. Campaign Award (age 16 – 30): The Global Goals Campaign Award celebrates a campaign (individual or group) that has raised awareness or built a community in support of a Goal related cause, inspiring action and creating change.
4. Goalkeepers Voice Award (any age): This special recognition celebrates a global figure for influential and impactful campaigning and advocacy work in support of the Global Goals. They will be recognized for using their platform, their position of influence, and their voice to raise awareness and advocate for their chosen causes.
5. Global Goalkeeper Award (any age): This special recognition celebrates a political leader who has demonstrated their commitment to the Global Goals through impactful work in their country and/or globally.

3. Who are the Campaign, Changemaker and Progress Award nominating partners?

In order to ensure that the nominations for the Campaign, Changemaker and Progress Awards are garnered from a global & diverse community, we invite partners from the development community to be part of the nomination process. By tapping into this network of experts we ensure that submissions are high quality and derive from legitimate and trusted sources. The 2019 partners are:

African Youth Networks Movement, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation (BMGF), Civicus / A4SD, George W. Bush institute, Global Citizen, Goalkeepers Community, Mandela Institute for Development Studies, Obama Foundation, ONE, One Young World, Oxfam, Project Everyone, Restless Development, Save the Children, UNICEF, United Nations Youth Envoy, United Nations Foundation, UNLEASH, Virgin Unite, We Day.

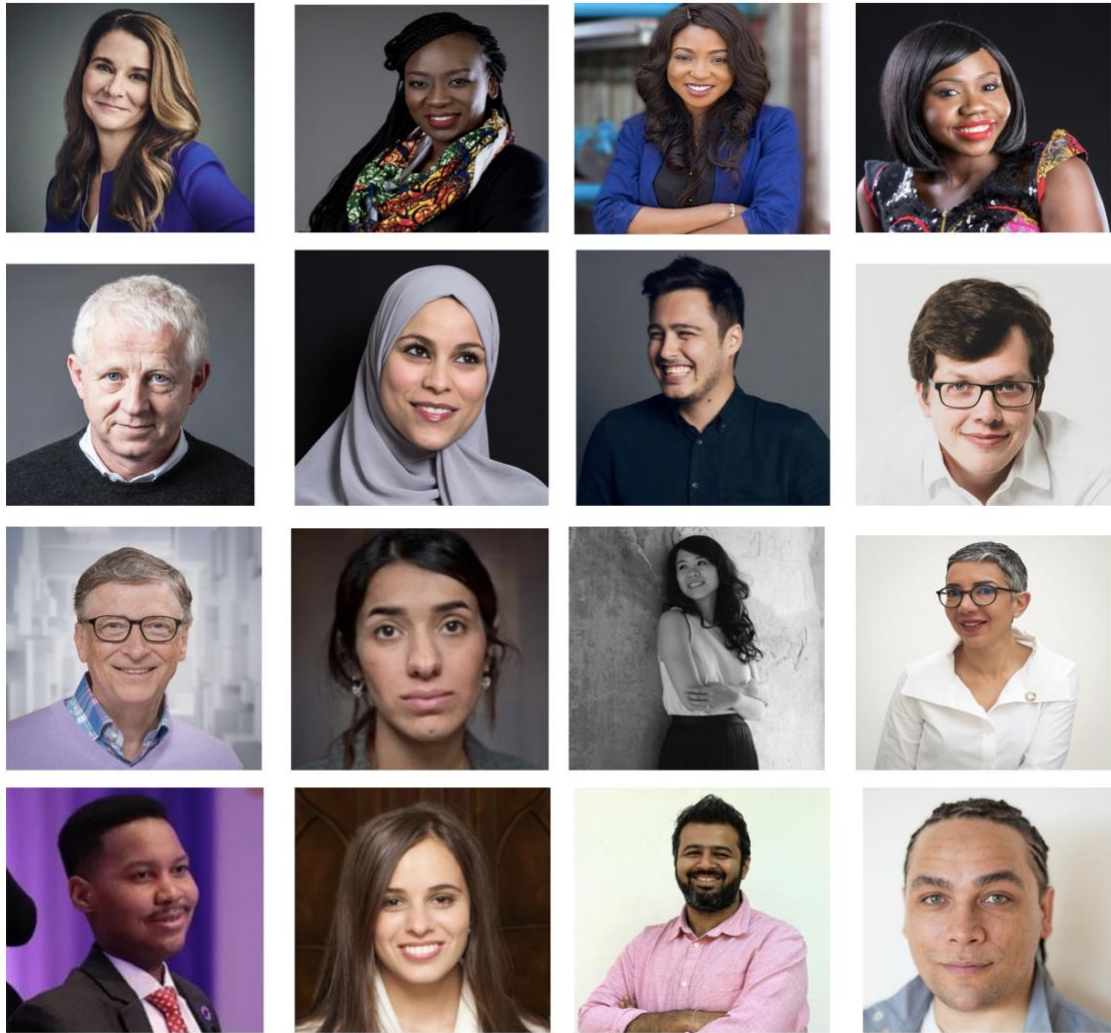

4. Who judges the awards?

The Campaign, Changemaker and Progress Awards are reviewed by an expert judging panel made up of a diverse group of individuals from the wider Goalkeepers community. The judging team is subject to change annually.

This year's panel are:

- Richard Curtis, UK, UN SDG Advocate
- Dr. Alaa Murabit, Canada, UN SDG Advocate
- Nadia Murad, Iraq, UN SDG Advocate
- Edward Ndopu, South Africa, UN SDG Advocate
- Melinda Gates, USA, BMGF
- Bill Gates, USA, BMGF (TBC)
- Goalkeepers Advisory Board:
 - Blessing Omakwu-Soremekun, USA/Nigeria, ONE & The She Tank
 - Christian Vanizette, France, Makesense
 - Okore Scheaffer, Kenya, Ukweli Party
 - Angel Adelaja, Nigeria, Fresh Direct
 - Lukas Köhler, Germany, Liberal Party
 - Jasmine Lau, China, Philanthropy in Motion
 - Alex Holmes, UK, The Diana Award
 - Nikhil Taneja, India, Yuva
 - Lili Buffett, USA, Global Impact LLC
 - Radia Cheikh Lahlou, Morocco, Déclis

The Global Goalkeeper Award and Goalkeepers Voice Award are chosen by the Goalkeepers organizing committee at the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and Project Everyone. Recipients are chosen based on the work they have done and the work they have committed to do in support of the Global Goals.

5. What do award winners receive? the Campaign, Changemaker and Progress Awards receive?

The Campaign, Changemaker and Progress Awards winners receive $10,000 in unallocated funds for endeavours in their fields, and a package of media and training assets to support the telling of their story.

The recipients of the Global Goalkeeper and Goalkeepers Voice Award will not receive a cash prize.

6. When will the award winners be announced?

Award winners will be announced at the Goalkeepers, Global Goals Awards ceremony on Tuesday 24th September 2019.